-----------	----------------------

- 1.0 Approval of Minutes
 - May 18, 2017
 - 2.0 Student Services Forms – Revisited
 - The Council reviewed the final drafts of the pending revised Student Services forms. The forms will be printed and sent to the campus and/or posted online as appropriate.
 - 3.0 Probation and Disqualification Counts by Status
 - The Council reviewed the spring 2017 report of students who were placed on academic probation and/or disqualification, discussion followed. The report provides a comparison with spring 2016. The data show some notable progress in the number of students at City and Mesa who were dropped for summer due to academic disqualification. Other notable improvements occurred in various groups across the colleges. The Council will continue to monitor student academic progress as part of the student success agenda.

4.0 Petition for Academic Accommodation

- The group reviewed and approved a change to the petition for Academic Accommodation to include the DSPS chair in the recommendation. The form will be finalized and distributed.

5.0 Title IX: Pregnancy As a Short-term Disability (Chris May)

- Chris May, Title IX Coordinator, joined the Council to discuss recent case law regarding Pregnancy as a short term disability, through a Title IX lens. Chris will work with the district DSPS Director to develop operational guidelines for staff to have in place for fall. In addition, it was agreed that the topic would be placed on the next Counselors Workshop agenda.

6.0 Draft Immigration Guidelines

- The Council reviewed a packet of information on immigration enforcement on campus, as well as district procedures regarding access to student record information presented in a Q and A format that will be sent to all students and employees. The group suggested adding a question for future distribution to include the legal authority by which immigration officials would be allowed on campuses. Lynn Neault will follow up.

7.0 Appeal for Priority Registration & BOG Restoration

- Ashanti Hands reported that there is some confusion at Mesa with the deadline dates and suggested the deadline dates be posted online on Student Web Services. Lynn Neault will follow up.
- Assembly Bill 1018 – Ashanti Hands reported on AB 1018 which includes homeless, gay, bisexual, lesbians in college equity plans.

8.0 CTE Credit by Exam/Articulation

- Deferred to Joint VPI/VPSS meeting

9.0 Priority Registration for Athletes

- Lynn Neault reported that the Academic Senate and Presidents have agreed to change the registration priorities to include priority registration for athletes. A draft process will be brought to a future meeting for review.
