1. What is WebAdvisor?

WebAdvisor is an online web based information system. You may view your direct deposit Pay Advices, Position Summary, Leave Plan balances (as of prior month), Stipends, Total Compensation, and prior W-2's (since 2008).

2. How do I log into WebAdvisor?

3. What is my User ID?

Your User ID will be provided by e-mail from the District Systems Administrator. Your User ID is your Colleague Employee ID, with an sd in front of it. (ex sd0123456). Your Colleague Employee ID number is located on your Pay Advice. If you have a 0 before your Colleague Employee ID, you must include the 0 to log on. (ex sd0123456)

If you are unable to locate your Colleague Employee ID, follow the steps below:

- Navigate to the WebAdvisor home page (Step 2 above).
- Click on the “Employee Services – My Budget” tab.

5. Can I see the same information on my WebAdvisor Pay Advice, as appears on the paper version?

Yes – The same information is available through WebAdvisor through the following views:

- Pay Advice
- Position Summary (Range/Step)
- Stipends
- Leave Plan Balances (as of prior month)
- Total Compensation Statement

6. How do I print my Pay Advice?

Since you may now access your Pay Advice anytime, anywhere, you may not need a printed copy. If you do need to print, you can print a form by clicking the Print icon on the Toolbar of your browser. Alternately, you can click File, and then click Print in the drop-down menu. Then click OK or Print in the displayed Print dialog box.

7. What if I do not have access to a computer at work?

Your information is easily accessed by any computer that has a connection to the Internet, 24 hours a day. Just simply follow the log on instructions mentioned in step 2.

8. When will my current Pay Advice information be posted on the web?

Your pay information will be posted on-line on pay day. You can log on at 12:01 a.m. to view and print your Pay Advice for your records. Your Pay Advice history will remain on-line, so you may access it at anytime.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

9. What do I do if I have question about my Pay Advice or any other Human Resources provided information?

Call the District Payroll office at 619-388-6582.

10. How do I change my personal information?

This process remains the same. Contact the District Payroll Office at 619-388-6582 or access forms on-line at www.sdccd.edu/hrpublic. Complete the appropriate forms and send to the District Payroll Office.

11. What do I do if I receive a message that says “Your account has been disabled”?

Call the Help Desk at 619-388-7000.

12. What browsers can I use with WebAdvisor?

For the best view and for proper maneuvering throughout WebAdvisor it is recommended to use Internet Explorer.

13. May I use the W2 for filing my taxes?

No – The copy provided is not an IRS approved official W2. Also, if you received a W2C (corrected W2) it will not be reflected on this web-site. For an official copy of your W2, please contact the District Payroll department at 619-388-6582.

14. Since this is on the Web is my personal data confidential or can anyone access it?

Your personal information cannot be accessed by anyone except by you. WebAdvisor is a fully password-protected web site that has been designed to protect your confidential information. As with any web-site, you are responsible for preventing unauthorized access to your private information. To ensure confidentiality, it is important that you:

- Properly log out of WebAdvisor by clicking the "Log Out" button located at the upper right-hand corner and then close your browser when finished accessing your information.
- Do not share your password with anyone.
