

Black Leaders of Influence 2024

February 26, 2024

DR. TINA M. KING | President San Diego College of Continuing Education

Dr. Tina M. King, President of San Diego College of Continuing Education, is a transformative educational leader whose vision is guided by the core values of inclusive excellence, equity-mindedness, and institutional responsibility for student success. King has served in every sector of education in California. She began her career as a middle school teacher in the Compton Unified School District. Her achievements include restoring SDCCE's historic Educational Cultural Complex with a $35 million renovation grant from Gov. Gavin Newsom's 2021-22 State Budget. ECC has significant ties to American Civil Rights. She launched SDCCE's Black Student Success program and LGBTQIA+ programs to provide students with a safe space, access to resources, and to host training workshops for SDCCE employees. King is an advocate for students, educators and issues affecting student equity. She can be reached at sdcccepresident@sdccd.edu or 619-388-4990.

