BP 7510 DOMESTIC PARTNERS

Domestic partners registered with the California Secretary of State shall have, insofar as permitted by California law, all of the same rights, protections, and benefits, as well as the same obligations, responsibilities, and duties of married persons (spouses) under state law. Former domestic partners shall have all of the rights and obligations of former spouses. Surviving domestic partners shall have the same rights, protections, and benefits as are granted to a surviving spouse of a decedent.

Collective bargaining agreements and handbooks with employee organizations may extend terms and conditions of employment such as leaves, medical insurance and other benefits to those domestic partners who do not meet the requirements for registration with the California Secretary of State.
