BP 5010 – ADMISSION OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

California Education Code §76000 permits admission to a community college of “any California resident who possesses a high school diploma or the equivalent thereof.” Other persons may be admitted under the rules of the Board, subject to the restrictions contained in law.

1. In accordance with §76000 of the California Education Code, San Diego City, Mesa and Miramar colleges may admit students under the following conditions:
 - a. Persons who possess a high school diploma or California high school proficiency exam certification or a high school equivalency certificate;
 - b. Persons 18 years of age or older or emancipated minors who do not possess a high school diploma or equivalent may be admitted by the college under provisional admission status;
 - c. Persons concurrently enrolled in an adult education program administered by a school district, or noncredit program administered by a community college district may be admitted by the college as “special part-time” students;
 - d. Persons concurrently enrolled in a K-12 program may be admitted as “special part-time” students subject to permission of the parent or guardian, recommendation and approval of the school principal, and approval of the college president or designee. Special part-time students will be admitted under provisional admission status. College classes offered on the high school campus and students participating in high school/community college articulated program will not be subject to GPA restrictions specified in Administrative Procedure, AP 5010, Student Admission Status;
 - e. Persons may be admitted as “special full-time” students pursuant to California Education Code §48800.5 with approval of the high school governing board and approval of the college president or designee. Special full-time students will be admitted under provisional admission status; and
 - f. Persons who do not meet one of the admission criteria stated above will not be admitted under any circumstances, and the District shall in its discretion, or as otherwise federally mandated, evaluate the validity of a student’s high school completion.

2. In accordance with §76038 of the California Education Code, students seeking admission who have been previously expelled from a California community college within the past five years, or who are currently in the process of a formal expulsion hearing for any offense listed in Administrative Procedure, AP 5010, Student Admission Status, 2.a.1-7, are required to inform the District. Admission eligibility shall be determined in accordance with Administrative Procedure, AP 5010, Student Admission Status.
3. In accordance with §76030 of the California Education Code, students who are prevented from all district business due to a protective order, obtained by the district, must apply for reinstatement prior to the expiration of the protective order in accordance with Administrative Procedure, AP 5010, Student Admission Status.

The Vice Chancellor of Educational Services shall be responsible for admission determination matters pertaining to expulsions in accordance with state and federal law and District policy.
