Education Programs

The District shall provide access to its services, classes and programs without regard to, national origin, religion, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race or ethnicity, color, medical condition, genetic information, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, or because is they are perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics, or based on association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

All courses, including noncredit classes, shall be conducted without regard to the gender of the student enrolled in the classes. As defined in the Penal Code, “gender” means sex, and includes a person’s gender identity and gender expression. “Gender expression” means a person’s gender-related appearance and behavior whether or not stereotypically associated with the person’s assigned sex at birth.

The District shall not prohibit any student from enrolling in any class or course on the basis of gender.

Academic staff, including but not limited to counselors, instructors and administrators shall not offer program guidance to students which differs on the basis of gender.

Insofar as practicable, the District shall offer opportunities for participation in athletics equally to male and female students.

Employment

The District shall provide equal employment opportunities to all applicants and employees regardless of national origin, religion, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race or ethnicity, color, medical condition, genetic information, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, or military and veteran status.

All employment decisions, including but not limited to hiring, retention, assignment, transfer, evaluation, dismissal, compensation, and advancement for all position classifications shall be based on job-related criteria as well as be responsive to the District’s needs.
All District employees are encouraged to be involved in the active promotion of diversity in employment, including recruitment.

The District shall from time to time as necessary provide professional and staff development activities and training to promote understanding of diversity.

Complaints of Discrimination

Any student, employee or third party who believes that they have been discriminated against or who believes another has been discriminated against in violation of Board Policy 3410 Nondiscrimination, should immediately report the incidents by following the procedures in AP 3435 Discrimination and Harassment Investigations.

The Equal Opportunity and Diversity Officer is the "responsible District officer" charged with receiving complaints of discrimination or harassment, and coordinating their investigation.
