AP 5019 – INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM REVIEW

For the purposes of this procedure, a program shall be defined as a field of study with one or more related certificates and degrees.

A program review process shall be established by the colleges and Continuing Education which:

- I. Meets accreditation standards and Education Code, California Code of Regulations, title 5;
- II. Includes procedures for regular review of instructional programs;
- III. Ensures career technical education programs are reviewed at least every two years; and
- IV. Ensures all other programs are reviewed at least every five years.

The Board of Trustees shall make the final decision regarding changes to instructional programs.
