DEFINITION

Under general supervision, provide protection to district facilities and property by reporting fire, intrusion, theft, and vandalism. Enforce district rules and regulations concerning use of district parking, buildings, and grounds. Provide traffic direction as needed; give directions and provide assistance to students, faculty, and visitors. Provide information to the college community and the public regarding location and operation of district buildings and grounds. Make oral and written reports of any hazardous conditions affecting the security or safety of district buildings and grounds. Incumbents may train and provide work direction to hourly workers, student aides, or new personnel.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

The College Service Officer/Weekend & Holiday classification differs from the College Service Officer in that incumbents assigned to this classification provide protection by observing and reporting intrusions to buildings and property and provide fire watch services solely on weekend or holiday around-the-clock shifts.

EXAMPLE OF DUTIES

1. Provide foot and motor patrol of assigned buildings, walkways, campus parking lots, and adjacent campus areas to enforce parking regulations and observe and report criminal activity.
2. Monitor parking permits and verify that permits are current and valid. Report the illegal use of or stolen permits. Issue parking citations and warnings, as appropriate, for violation of parking rules and regulations; prepare reports for non-injury traffic accidents and minor non-traffic injuries or illnesses.
3. Assist college police in traffic control and in locating lost vehicles; place barricades and control parking usage at designated locations and for special events.
4. Observe and report safety hazards, unsafe conditions, acts of vandalism, thefts, fires, and intrusions to buildings and grounds. Report on parking lot conditions, missing signs, malfunctioning parking meters, or other unsafe conditions on roadways and in parking lots. Report any unlawful or unauthorized activity occurring in assigned areas.
5. Keep a written record of activities and incidents. Observe and report persons entering or leaving buildings and grounds after regular hours. Prepare and submit daily written activity reports concerning incidents, which includes writing crime reports for property crimes for which no suspects are present.
6. Secure facilities, buildings, and grounds. Secure doors, windows, and gates in and to buildings. Set, disarm, and/or reset fire and intrusion alarms.
7. Administer first aid and CPR as needed.
8. Testify in court as required. Be a witness for the college police concerning observations.
9. Assist with collecting money from permit machines and parking meters. Assist with transport and delivery of collections to the district office.

10. Give directions and information to visitors and members of the college community. May perform receptionist and clerical duties.
11. Train and provide work direction and guidance to contract or hourly employees as necessary.
12. May perform minor repairs on parking meters and ticket dispensing machines. Perform annual test and inspection of district alarm systems.
13. Perform related duties as assigned.
