The San Diego Community College District (SDCCD) is among the largest of California's 73 community college districts. Annually, it provides education to approximately 80,000 students through its three credit colleges — San Diego City College, Mesa College, and Miramar College — and the seven noncredit campuses of the San Diego College of Continuing Education. The District also serves over 5,000 active-duty military personnel, veterans, and dependents. SDCCD is overseen by a five-member Board of Trustees, elected by local voters to four-year terms in even-numbered years. The Board's four student members rotate, while the chancellor, the District's chief executive officer, is responsible for executing policies approved by the Board. The District encourages participatory governance, allowing all constituent groups to partake in planning processes. SDCCD credit colleges offer associate degrees, and career technical certificates are available through the College of Continuing Education and the credit colleges. These courses prepare students for university transfer or employment. Additionally, Mesa College provides a bachelor's degree in Health Information Management under California's Baccalaureate Program, and City College has a newly approved baccalaureate program in Cyber Defense and Analysis. These courses prepare students for university transfer or employment. The District has active local industry, community, military, and educational partnerships to provide clear career pathways for students. In the 2021-22 fiscal year, the District and its graduates contributed $4.3 billion to the regional economy. All SDCCD campuses aim to offer diverse learning experiences in a multicultural setting that meets community needs. Committed to innovation, access, and excellence, the District is working to redefine the community college experience.

Major Construction Projects/Improvements Underway or Planned for the Year

The San Diego Community College District's $1.555 billion Propositions S and N construction bond program has provided for new, state-of-the-art instructional and career training facilities, major renovations, public safety and accessibility enhancements, parking, and infrastructure projects at City, Mesa and Miramar Colleges, and seven Continuing Education campuses. All construction has been completed in accordance with the District's Green Building Policy and Major Renovation Standards. The policy calls for four key performance goals and includes formal pursuit of Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification. The District has obtained a total of 42 LEED certified buildings. Currently the $35,000,000 renovation to the historic ECC Theater is in the design stage. The District has completed new Long Range Facilities Masterplans at each campus in anticipation of future capital improvements. In addition, the District has received approval of funding from the State of California for affordable student housing at City College.

San Diego Miramar College Overview Academic Year 2022-2023

President: Wesley Lundburg, Ph. D.

The San Diego Community College District (SDCCD) is among the largest of California's 73 community college districts. Annually, it provides education to approximately 80,000 students through its three credit colleges — San Diego City College, Mesa College, and Miramar College — and the seven noncredit campuses of the San Diego College of Continuing Education. The District also serves over 5,000 active-duty military personnel, veterans, and dependents. SDCCD is overseen by a five-member Board of Trustees, elected by local voters to four-year terms in even-numbered years. The Board's four student members rotate, while the chancellor, the District's chief executive officer, is responsible for executing policies approved by the Board. The District encourages participatory governance, allowing all constituent groups to partake in planning processes. SDCCD credit colleges offer associate degrees, and career technical certificates are available through the College of Continuing Education and the credit colleges. These courses prepare students for university transfer or employment. Additionally, Mesa College provides a bachelor's degree in Health Information Management under California's Baccalaureate Program, and City College has a newly approved baccalaureate program in Cyber Defense and Analysis. These courses prepare students for university transfer or employment. The District has active local industry, community, military, and educational partnerships to provide clear career pathways for students. In the 2021-22 fiscal year, the District and its graduates contributed $4.3 billion to the regional economy. All SDCCD campuses aim to offer diverse learning experiences in a multicultural setting that meets community needs. Committed to innovation, access, and excellence, the District is working to redefine the community college experience.

Major Construction Projects/Improvements Underway or Planned for the Year

Recently completed projects include an infrastructure landscape and pathway project on the west side of Parking Structure 4 allowing for a safe walking path connecting the south end of campus to the quad area and improving the look of that area. Smaller projects include: providing ADA parking spaces under some type of shading near parking lot 1 or 2 as required, and repairing smart meters to be able to track energy data on individual buildings.

After completion of the Propositions S & N projects at Miramar College the campus is now focused on a new Facilities Master Plan which will identify how the campus facilities and infrastructure will grow over the next 10-15 years to support the Educational Program. Meetings and workshops will continue throughout the year. The Master Plan was presented to the Board of Trustees and approved in 2022.

San Diego College of Continuing Education Overview Academic Year 2022-2023

President: Tina King, Ed.D.

Among the oldest and largest noncredit institutions in the nation, the San Diego College of Continuing Education is the adult education arm of the San Diego Community College District, serving approximately 30,000 students annually at seven campuses, scores of community locations, and online. Students are among the most diverse in California—culturally, ethnically, and educationally. Noncredit classes are offered at no cost. Programs address essential areas of adult education, including short-term career training in priority industry sectors; English as a Second Language; basic skills; an Emeritus program for those 55 years old or older; and Disability Support Programs and Services. The San Diego College of Continuing Education's career training programs alone contributed a quarter-billion dollars to the San Diego regional economy each year. Employers also benefit from customized workforce training through our Employee Training Institute (ETi). San Diego College of Continuing Education was one of the first noncredit institutions in the U.S. to be separately accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). The administrators, faculty, and staff are highly qualified, with many holding master's degrees and several holding doctoral degrees.

Major Construction Projects/Improvements Underway or Planned for the Year

The state of California awarded San Diego College of Continuing Education a $35 million grant to preserve and rehabilitate the historic Educational Cultural Complex, a center for education and arts that played a significant role in the Civil Rights Movement. Planning is moving forward on theatre renovations, which include new seating, modern acoustic panels, updated sound and lighting, convenient entries, upgraded foyer areas, and more. The project is on track for completion in 2024. The Educational Cultural Complex also opened a new student lounge at the Educational Cultural Complex in summer of 2023. The Educational Cultural Complex (ECC) is also in the process of designing the renovation of the Theater and Community Room. The project should start construction in late 2024.
