

Associate in Arts in Anthropology for Transfer Degree:

The Associate in Arts in Anthropology for Transfer Degree is intended for students who plan to complete a bachelor's degree in Anthropology or a related major in the California State University (CSU) system. It is accepted by some but not all CSU campuses. Students who complete this degree and transfer to a participating CSU campus will be required to complete no more than 60 units after transfer to earn a bachelor's degree. It may not be appropriate preparation for students transferring to a CSU campus that does not accept the degree.

Program Learning Outcomes

Students who complete the Anthropology Program will acquire these skills:

- Critical Thinking: Use an anthropological framework to think critically in reading, writing, and/or speaking, thereby interpreting relevant problems, theses, arguments and evidence to draw and defend rational conclusions.
- Communication: Effectively communicate employing anthropological perspectives while recognizing and respecting potential differences in worldview.
- Personal Actions and Civic Responsibilities: Articulate the varieties of biological and cultural adaptations and demonstrate an understanding of cultural diversity.
- Global Awareness: Articulate ability to understand one's role in local and global society, take responsibility for one's own actions, and make ethical decisions in complex situations.
- Information Literacy: Collect data and engage with research through appropriate use of an array of scholarly sources and through discipline-specific technologies and frameworks.

Note: Students who plan to complete this degree should consult a counselor and visit www.assist.org for additional information about participating CSU campuses as well as university admission, degree and transfer requirements.

Award Notes:

Students are required to complete a maximum of 60 CSU transferable units with a minimum overall grade point average of 2.0.

Major: A minimum of 18 units with grade of "C" or better.
