III. OLD BUSINESS
   A. Courses Not Integrated (Information)
      Shelly Hess clarified deactivated courses have not been removed from the Courses Not Integrated list in order to track the courses should they be reactivated and reintegrated. Hess advised Instructional Services is researching an approach to track the deactivations internally.

IV. NEW BUSINESS
   A. MUSI 174A-D and MUSI 274A-D (Information)
      Hess advised in spring 2013 Mesa’s new Music courses were approved by the Council. The California Community College Chancellor’s Office requested revisions to the courses. Hess explained the minor revisions to the course outlines included differentiating the titles, learning objectives and course content to reflect the variation between the levels of the courses. Hess noted the errata would be published to reflect the updated catalog course descriptions. Course outlines discussed.

B. Policies and Procedures Subcommittee Items (Information)

Hess advised several procedures are ready to be guided through each college’s shared governance approval process by the subcommittee. The Guidelines for Development of Procedures document was displayed and provided to Council. Hess reviewed the approval process for new and revised instructional procedures. General Education procedure, Requisites, Corerequisites, Limitations on Enrollment and Advisories procedure, Graduation Requirements for Degrees procedure and Program Approval procedure were displayed. Revisions to procedures discussed. Guidelines for Discipline Assignment document displayed. Tim McGrath recommended the condition in Section (7) Faculty Qualifications, subsection d. Interdisciplinary be revised to clarify the upper division and graduate units recommended to meet minimum qualifications, and proposed 12 graduate units be included as an option. Duane Short suggested revising the sentence to reflect the recommended maximum upper division and minimum graduate units. Council discussed role of deans, colleges, CRC, CIC and human resources roles in discipline assignment. Ensuring the document is proposed as a guideline to faculty was discussed. Hess advised Section 7’s title can be revised to convey the listed qualifications are recommendations. Hess thanked Council for the feedback and requested advised revisions and/or feedback received from the colleges should be brought back to Council for discussion.

C. Walk-Ins (Action)

MUSI 135A College Guitar I and Music 135B College Guitar II (Mesa)

Michelle Parsons explained 135A and 135B are new courses designed to replace MUSI 132A and 132B. Parsons noted the courses are not revisions of 132A and 132B and are proposed for UC transfer. Parsons advised Mesa would like to offer the courses in spring 2014. Hess clarified the courses will be approved as stand alone as the programs were not updated. Hess inquired if 132A and 132B will be proposed for deactivation. Parsons confirmed Mesa plans to deactivate the courses. Discussion occurred regarding the deactivation of 132A and 132B. Plourde advised in order for the program(s) to be approved with the new courses 132A and 132B will need to be removed. Major preparation and UC transfer discussed.

Action: MUSI 135A and 135B approved, pending tech review.
MSP (Lombardi/Parsons)
