In this course, students gain knowledge and experience in local government processes through direct involvement in college shared governance bodies. California community college districts are special-purpose local governments with decision-making processes and procedures similar to other local government organizations. Students in this course will serve as members of at least one college governance committee and participate in associated campus decision-making processes under the supervision of college faculty. One unit of credit is normally awarded for participation on one shared governance committee. Class lecture time is used to explore college governance in the context of local government processes, discuss learning experiences, reflect on self-development, and review assignments. This course is intended for students from any discipline who are interested in local or college level political processes. The combined credit for all 277D discipline courses may not exceed three units. (FT) Associate Degree Credit & transfer to CSU and/or private colleges and universities.
