Old Business

1. Italian AP exam: Juliette Parker

Duane explained the end date for AP Italian was removed, the catalog will be updated.

New Business

2. Accreditation- Regional and CAL campus: Libby Andersen

Libby explained that CAL is an educational institution that offers high school programs, there was a discussion on the CIAC listserv regarding this institution and she asked for input from City and Mesa. Juliette and Duane explained students could clear course requirements using credit by exam.

3. Kaiser Permanente & Colorado Technical University: Libby Andersen

Juliette explained Kaiser Permanente is working with Colorado Technical University for their employees to take course work through Colorado Technical which then could be applied to one of our local degrees. Duane clarified Colorado Technical University is not asking for articulation they are asking for City, Mesa and Miramar to accept their courses as incoming course work to clear the requirements for the nursing degree at City; the process for Colorado Technical University students would be to go through evaluations. Libby will contact Colorado Technical University.

4. Math prerequisite for ECON courses: Duane Short

Juliette contacted SDSU's Articulation Officer and he is ok with MATH 92 becoming an alternate prerequisite for ECON 120 and 121 and this will not affect articulation for the ECON courses.

5. Distance ed and language:

Libby will contact USC regarding the standing of City's foreign language courses. City does not offer language courses online.

6. CIAC Conference Report:

Articulation Officers discussed the information and presentations given at the CIAC conference held last month.
