

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE

San Diego City College-Military Education Program

IT Instructor Positions in Pensacola, FL; Norfolk, VA; Groton, CT; San Diego, CA

We are accepting resumes to support recent contract award.

IT Senior Instructor/Supervisor

Lead Instructor manages the instructional program at his/her assigned facility in absence of on-site CPM. Responsible for the daily onsite operations, preparation and management of the daily classroom schedule. He/she guides other instructors as required. Serves as liaison and is integral to relationship building at the place of performance. The Senior Instructor serves in a lead role and will serve as the first point of contact for the government Course Manager for coordination or conflict resolution.

Professional Experience

- Shall have three (3) years documented experience as a lead instructor or project leader.
- Shall have two (2) years teaching IT-related topics within the last four (4) years;
- Shall have operational experience in Information Assurance disciplines contained in DoD Instruction 8570.01-M;
- Shall have MCT certification or Certified USN Instructor (NEC-9502)/or other Service equivalent or Navy Master Training Specialist Designation/or other Service equivalent or CompTIA Certified Technical Trainer+;
- Must be Microsoft Certified Professional (MCP) in each topic/exam for which they instruct;
- Shall have at a minimum IAT-I and IAT-II certifications
- Shall be a Cisco Certified Academic Instructor;
- Provide oral and/or written reports as required;
- Adapt instructional methods based on analysis of individual student and group needs;
- Use role-playing techniques and performance based exercises to reinforce learning objectives;
- Desired – Instructor certification or designation such as a teaching certificate, certified professional instructor, master training specialist, or adjunct faculty certification.

Salary: TBD BOE

Close Date: Open until filled

POC: Leo Padilla

Submit resume to: lpadilla@sdccd.edu

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE

San Diego City College-Military Education Program

IT Instructor Positions in Pensacola, FL; Norfolk, VA; Groton, CT; San Diego, CA

We are accepting resumes to support recent contract award.

IT Instructor

Provide classroom instruction to teach the students in the manner described in the course textbooks and materials. Conduct practical exercises in a classroom / laboratory environment. Provide supervision of student study hall periods and provide tutoring/remedial instruction (mentoring) outside the eight (8) hour contact duty day in accordance with the Director of Training mandated schedule for Mandatory study hall.

Professional Experience

- Shall have two (2) years teaching IT-related topics within the last four (4) years;
- Shall have operational experience in Information Assurance disciplines contained in DoD Instruction 8570.01-M;
- Shall have MCT certification or Certified USN Instructor (NEC-9502)/or other Service equivalent or Navy Master Training Specialist Designation/or other Service equivalent or CompTIA Certified Technical Trainer+;
- Must be Microsoft Certified Professional (MCP) in each topic/exam for which they instruct;
- Shall have at a minimum IAT-I and IAT-II certifications
- Shall be a Cisco Certified Academic Instructor;
- Provide oral and/or written reports as required;
- Adapt instructional methods based on analysis of individual student and group needs;
- Use role-playing techniques and performance based exercises to reinforce learning objectives;
- Desired – Instructor certification or designation such as a teaching certificate, certified professional instructor, master training specialist, or adjunct faculty certification.

Salary: TBD BOE

Close Date: Open until filled

POC: Leo Padilla

Submit resume to: lpadilla@sdccd.edu