Facilities Management

Among one of the largest of California’s 73 community college districts, the San Diego Community College District (SDCCD) serves approximately 100,000 students annually at its three credit colleges, San Diego City College, Mesa College, Miramar College, and the seven non-credit campuses of San Diego College of Continuing Education. The District proudly serves over 7,000 active-duty military personnel, veterans, and dependents.

The SDCCD is governed by its five-member, locally elected Board of Trustees and three student members serving on a rotating basis. SDCCD trustees are elected in even-numbered years to four-year terms by the voters of San Diego. The Chancellor, the District’s chief executive officer, is responsible for carrying out the policies approved by the Board of Trustees. The District follows a participatory governance structure that provides opportunities for constituent groups to participate in all planning processes.

The colleges offer associate degrees, and Continuing Education and the credit colleges offer career technical certificates that prepare students for transfer to universities and/or career pathways for gainful employment. In addition, Mesa College offers a bachelor’s degree in Health Information Management as part of California’s Baccalaureate Program. The SDCCD maintains active partnerships with local industry, the community, military, and educational institutions to ensure students have clear pathways to careers and the next stage of their education. The District and its graduates had a combined economic benefit to the region of $4.1 billion during the 2019-20 fiscal year .

The District’s credit colleges and College of Continuing Education each provide vibrant campuses, offering accessible, diverse learning experiences in a multicultural setting that both reflects and meets the needs of the community. With a focus on innovation, access, and excellence, the SDCCD is redefining the community college experience.

Major Construction Projects/Improvements Underway or Planned for the Year

The San Diego Community College District’s $1.555 billion Propositions S and N construction bond program has provided for new, state-of-the-art instructional and career training facilities, major renovations, public safety and accessibility enhancements, parking, and infrastructure projects at City, Mesa and Miramar Colleges, and seven Continuing Education campuses. All construction has been completed in accordance with the District’s Green Building Policy and Major Renovation Standards. The policy calls for four key performance goals and includes formal pursuit of Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification. The District is on track to obtain a total of 42 LEED certified buildings.

City College is a short walk from the City College Trolley Station, world-renowned Balboa Park, the Gaslamp Quarter, Petco Park, and the San Diego Bay. Through 2021, the college is completing the final phases of the largest transformation in its history, including the addition of five classroom buildings. In 2021, City College faculty and classified professionals hosted its sixth annual Social Justice and Education Conference, virtually, to continue to advance the role of social justice in academics. City College also offers career technical training for in-demand fields such as cybersecurity, environmental control technology, biotechnology, computer information systems, digital music technology, and machine technology. Major Construction Projects/Improvements Underway or Planned for the Year

Situated on over 100 acres, Mesa College is one of the largest community colleges in California. Propositions S & N-funded projects for Mesa have included six new academic and career training facilities, two campus support facilities, five major renovation projects, and numerous infrastructure, parking, and public safety projects.

The quadrangle project has completed the removal of the three original single story buildings (I-100, I-200, J-100) in order to create an outdoor space with amphitheater, new pathways between new buildings, and grass and landscape areas with an anticipated construction completion in Fall 2021. Other projects include increasing the number of ADA-accessible spaces under the solar carports located throughout the campus, rebalancing and recommissioning the central plant for optimum efficiency, and repairing smart meters to be able to track energy data on individual buildings.

After completion of the Propositions S & N projects at Mesa College the campus focused on a new Comprehensive Educational Master Plan and Facilities Master Plan; the MESA 2030 Plan, which has identified how the campus facilities and infrastructure will grow over the next 10-15 years to support the Educational Program. The Master Plan was recently approved by the Board of Trustees.

San Diego Continuing Education Overview

Academic Year 2020-2021

Interim President: Kay Faulconer Boger, Ed.D.

San Diego College of Continuing Education (SDCCE) is the adult education college in the San Diego Community College District. Approximately 40,000 students are served each academic year at seven campuses and hundreds of community locations. SDCCE is one of the oldest and largest noncredit institutions in the nation, serving San Diegans since 1914. Students are among the most diverse in California—culturally, ethnically and educationally. Noncredit classes are offered at no cost, and students who enroll in classes have a variety of educational and personal goals. Programs address essential areas of adult education including short-term career training in priority industry sectors (e.g. Information Technologies, Skilled and Technical Trades, Health Care and Advanced Manufacturing), career development, English as a Second Language, adult basic skills, an Emeritus program for age 55+, and Disability Support Programs and Services. Additionally, employers benefit from customized workforce training through our Employee Training Institute. SDCCE was one of the first noncredit institutions in the U.S. to be separately accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). The administrators, faculty, and staff are highly qualified with many holding master's degrees and several holding doctoral degrees.
