Students are subject to charges of misconduct and removal for violation of the Student Code of Conduct including, but not limited to the following acts:

- Academic misconduct or dishonesty; cheating.
- Use of intellectual material produced by another person without acknowledging its source; plagiarism.
- Forgery, alteration, falsification or misuse of campus/District documents, records, electronic devices, or identification.
- Use of a recording device in a classroom without prior permission of the instructor or approval of an academic accommodation from Disability Support Programs and Services (DSPS).
- Theft or damage to District property.
- The physical or verbal disruption of instructional or student activities.
- The physical, verbal or written intimidation or harassment of such severity or pervasiveness as to have the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive educational environment.
- Any expression which is obscene, libelous or slanderous.
- Physical altercation or threats of violence including assault, or battery upon a student or District personnel on District premises.
- Unlawful conduct of a sexual nature. Sexual assault or physical abuse including but not limited to rape, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- Possession of weapons, explosives, or objects which may be used as weapons or to threaten bodily harm.
- Failure to comply with directions of staff members of the District who are acting within the scope of their employment.
- Use, possession, distribution, or sale of alcoholic beverages on campus.
- Use, possession, distribution, manufacture or sale of narcotics or other hallucinogenic drugs is prohibited on District premises.