ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

The Associated Students (AS) is the representative body of students in the shared governance process at Mesa College. AS provides students with leadership development experience in budget/financial planning, parliamentary procedures, and programs/services designed to meet students' needs.

Associated Student Membership

An Associated Students Membership supports AS's efforts to improve student life. While membership is voluntary, students are strongly encouraged to become a member in order to gain access to many valuable benefits.

With your AS Membership, You Can Receive:

- Discounted Fax Service (Student Affairs)
- Emergency Loans
- Entertainment and Guest Speakers
- Free Gift
- 5 Free Scantrons (per semester)
- Free Transcript
- Scholarship Opportunities

Want to Get Involved?

We need leaders, planners, recorders, volunteers, and student representatives. We offer experience in student governance and opportunities for you to express your thoughts and ideas.

The Associated Students meets every Monday and Wednesday, 12:45pm to 1:45pm in I4-409. Purchase your membership online at <http://studentweb.sdccd.edu> or in the Accounting Office, I4-106.
