Overview of Student Success Scorecard Measures

- Expanded college profile data:
  - Headcount by gender, age, and ethnicity
  - FTES
  - Total number of credit and non-credit sections
  - Median credit class size
  - Percent of full-time faculty (Districtwide full-time faculty obligation)
  - Student to counseling ratio
- All outcome measures are reported by:
  - College-prepared and underprepared
  - Gender
  - Ethnicity
  - Age

Completion Rates

Mesa	76%	76%	76%
Miramar	77%	73%	74%
Statewide	73%	71%	72%

- The overall persistence rates at all three colleges trended upward compared to last year's report, and remained above the statewide average (City 1%, Mesa 1%, Miramar 5%).
- The Unprepared group at the three colleges also saw an upward trend, and remained above the statewide average (City 2%, Mesa 2%, Miramar 5%).
- Persistence rates for the Prepared group were mixed, Miramar was the only college that had an upward trend compared to the previous year's report (City -9%, Mesa -1%, Miramar 5%).

30 Unit Completion Rate

Completion of 30+ Units
	Prepared	Unprepared	Overall
City	53%	49%	50%
Mesa	59%	61%	60%
Miramar	72%	68%	69%
Statewide	71%	65%	67%

- The rates for the overall completion of 30 or more units were mixed at the three colleges compared to last year's report (City 2%, Mesa 1%, Miramar -1%).
- The Unprepared groups at the three colleges showed mixed trends compared to last year (City 0%, Mesa -1%, Miramar -2%).
- The Prepared groups at the three colleges showed higher rates than last year's report (City 9%, Mesa 6%, Miramar 2%).

Remedial Rate

Remedial Rate
	Math	English	ESL
City	20%	41%	28%
Mesa	32%	50%	27%
Miramar	30%	51%	26%
Statewide	31%	43%	28%

- The remedial rates dropped in math at all three colleges compared to last year (City -8%, Mesa -7%, Miramar -8%), after an increase over 2012/13 (City 1%, Mesa 5%, Miramar 2%).
- English remedial rates were mixed with all but Mesa showing an increase over last year's rates (City 3%, Mesa -2%, Miramar 5%).
- City and Miramar showed an increase in ESL remedial rates over last year (City 5%, Mesa -1%, Miramar 1%).

Career Technical Education Completion Rate

Career Technical Education (CTE) Completion Rate
City	55%
Mesa	56%
Miramar	46%
Statewide	51%

- Miramar's CTE completion rate remained the same as last year, while City's and Mesa's rates dropped (-2% and -5%, respectively). However, both City and Mesa showed a slight increase when comparing last year to the previous year (City 2%, Mesa 1%).
- Miramar was the only college that was below the statewide average this year, likely due to the large number of students taking only in-service classes.

CDCP Rate

Career Development and College Preparation (CDCP)
Continuing Education	6%
Statewide	8%

- The CDCP rate at Continuing Education remained the same as last year, and also remained below the statewide average.
