DEFINITION

Under the general supervision of the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources or assigned executive manager, provide legal counsel for the Chancellor, Cabinet, Board of Trustees, and district administrative staff; manage and coordinate legal services and litigation assigned to outside counsel; administer legal and administrative requirements of Equal Employment Opportunities (EEO) and Diversity under federal and State laws and codes as well as district policies and procedures for all components of the District. Provide districtwide training related to assigned functions. Provide consultation on employee discipline, due process, and grievances.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES

1. Provide legal counsel and representation for the Chancellor, Cabinet, Board of Trustees, and district administrative staff on district matters. Participate in strategic planning decisions at the Cabinet level. Prepare and render legal opinions upon request.
2. Coordinate legal services and litigation against the District in accordance with policies adopted by the Board of Trustees and procedures established by the Chancellor. Consult with outside counsel on discovery, strategy, and settlement negotiations.
3. Represent the District in matters pertaining to EEO and Diversity. Prepare cases and represent the District in fact-finding hearings concerning EEO before State and federal regulatory agencies.
4. Investigate or administer the investigation and resolution of complaints of harassment from employees, students, job applicants, and others based upon ethnic group identification, religion, age, sex, color, or physical or mental disability, including sexual harassment.
5. Direct a program to review and approve the District's contracts and compliance programs for vendors/contractors to assure that their EEO/Diversity plans meet the regulations mandated by the Office of Federal Contracts and Compliance.
6. Develop and implement district policies, procedures, programs, and publications concerning legal services and assigned functions and assure these are consistent with the law.
7. Investigate or direct the investigation of incidents which may lead to discipline in accordance with applicable laws, district policy, and bargaining agreement processes.
8. Meet with community, State, and other appropriate parties to further the District's programs to enhance Diversity.
9. Develop and present reports and records which reflect the District's progress in meeting federal, State, or other legal or administrative diversity reporting requirements, including reports to the Board of Trustees and Chancellor. Gather and review California Public Records Act requests.
10. Establish training objectives in conjunction with management policies and directives; facilitate communication from management to employees regarding training objectives and program evaluation.
11. Supervise administrative staff assigned to the Legal Services and EEO Office.

- 12. Review final reports relating to Title IX investigations.
- 13. Perform related duties as assigned.
