Title: Production Services Assistant, Lead

Unit: Office Technical

DEFINITION

Under the direction of an assigned supervisor, perform a variety of clerical duties, including typing, word processing, and duplicating work in a district production setting; lead coworkers and perform duties involving frequent and responsible contact with students, faculty, staff, and the public.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

The Lead Production Services Assistant class performs the same duties as the Production Services Assistant, but also serves as a permanent lead worker over two or more contract employees on an ongoing basis. Incumbents are assigned primary responsibility for planning and prioritizing projects and implementing procedures, working with a minimum of direction and supervision.

EXAMPLE OF DUTIES

1. Act as lead over Production Services and Mail Center personnel. Plan and organize work; train and provide work direction to assigned personnel. Review requisitions, invoices, transfers, and related documents and make recommendations as appropriate. Provide work direction to student workers and hourly help as assigned.
2. Prepare, type, and duplicate a variety of documents, including tests, course outlines, syllabi, forms, and flyers.
3. Prepare graphic materials for various types of reproduction processes; plan basic layout and material from rough copy as assigned.
4. Operate binding and finishing equipment, such as copiers/digital printers, digital front ends, printers, computers, scanners, stitchers, staplers, padders, electric folding machines, power cutters, paper joggers, and electric waxers; package and distribute printed orders according to established procedures.
5. Operate a variety of office machines and equipment, including computer hardware and software.
6. Format, prepare, and revise complicated documents such as college course outlines, exams, handouts, and reports, posters, and banners.
7. Provide information to district personnel and the public. Receive phone calls and provide information concerning policies and procedures of assigned office.
8. Prepare and maintain appropriate logs, files, and records; order supplies and materials as necessary; maintain inventory.
9. Maintain confidentiality of a variety of sensitive information.
10. Perform related duties as assigned.
