Differentiators

Minimal Start-up Time Required: SDCCD's past performance demonstrates our capability to immediately start service delivery upon contract award. With immediate access to qualified staff, utilization of streamlined onboarding techniques, and extensive previous experience executing contract start-up, SDCCD minimizes the risk to our clients regardless of complexity.

HBCU/MI

Socioeconomic Status: FAR 26.3 promotes participation of HBCU/MIs in Federal Procurement and requires periodic reporting of department progress. Hispanic Serving Institutions, such as San Diego City College and San Diego Mesa College are defined as Minority Institutions within FAR 52.226.2. Contract awards to SDCCD may assist with meeting agency goals.

Staff/ Staff Retention: SDCCD has a significantly high rate of retaining staff as our organization is composed of selfless educators committed to our organizational goal of providing education and support to others, at an affordable cost. SDCCD is able to source and retain staff by providing a flexible work/life balance and benefits that are unmatched by any other government solution provider.
